

“Women in Business Helping Women in Crisis”

The Chicago area chapter of the National Association of Women Business Owners (NAWBO) is partnering with the Emergency Fund to host a Family Concert Charitable Benefit to help Chicago-area families and individuals in crisis.

Family Concert Charitable Benefit

Viper Alley, Lincolnshire, IL

April 29, 2012 3pm – 7pm (dinner and concert)

Entertainment by Blue Road and Chicago Women in the Blues

Featuring Peaches Staten, Vivian Vance Kelly, Shirley King, Liz Mandeville and Donna Herula

NAWBO Chicago is the leading organization in the Chicago area representing the interests of all women business owners, and its members recognize the critical need to help people stay in their homes, keep food on their tables and handle life's unexpected needs.

“We are committed to helping women and, by extension, families, become self-sufficient and self-sustaining as they move from crisis to hope,” says NAWBO Chicago President Error! Reference source not found. “Through this event, we hope to bring the issue of homelessness to the forefront, and invite civic leaders, the local media and area corporations to join us in bring awareness and clarity to the growing problem of women and families in trouble.”

“Emergencies don't discriminate,” says Emergency Fund Chief Executive Officer Nonie Brennan. “An emergency can happen at any time, in any neighborhood, and in any person's life. At Emergency Fund, we do everything we can to help families and individuals across the region make it through another day with dignity.”

Thank you in advance for your consideration to be part of something really great.
